The screenshot shows a Windows 7 desktop environment. The desktop background features a close-up of a woman's face. The taskbar at the bottom contains numerous application icons, including Nero Express, Internet Explorer, and various utility programs. The system tray on the right shows the date and time as 17:05 on November 29, 2013, along with system status icons for network, volume, and power. A Nero Express window is open, displaying the Nero 2014 logo and version information (15.0.24000). The window also shows a list of options for burning a disc, such as 'Сохранить аудио дорожки' and 'Стереть диск'. A system information window is also visible, showing CPU usage at 96% and other system metrics.
